

The 60 meter amateur radio band would allow emergency communications on a 24 hour day basis. Right now we are forced to use 80 meters at night and 40 meters during the day due. At times the conditions are not right for either band. It would significantly help with the over crowding on 80 meters and 40 meters as well.